BURR.

FOREST CITY M. E. CHURCH NOTES.

The services at Kimsey were fairly well attended Sunday. The light snow which fell Saturday did not seem to hinder people from coming out to church. The Sunday school was well filled, and all took great interest in studying the Christmas lesson.

A treat was given the pupils at the close of the morning services.

A fair-sized congregation was present at the evening service.

There will be preaching services next Sunday morning and evening at Forest City.

The pastor will preach at the 11 o'clock hour, and Rev. T. A. Claggett, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of Oregon, will preach at 7:30 p. m. Rev. Smallwood will preach at the M. E. church at Oregon at 7:30 p. m.

Those who do not have a chance to go to Oregon to hear others will have a good chance to hear Bro. Claggett at Forest City Sunday evening. All come, and give him a good hearing.

THE PASTOR.

FARMS.

- 1.—100 acres, 1 1/2 miles north of Oregon and on one of the best roads in the county. This farm is an ideal farm and an excellent place for a home. In an exceedingly desirable location and is one of the best farms in Holt county. Six-room house, large rooms, strongly built of the best timber; 30x30 barn, solid oak corn crib, fine fences, windmill and well, one cistern, good hog sheds. Every inch of this farm can be cultivated. Now if you want a good farm, buy this and have a fine home and a good farm at $175 per acre. Very reasonable terms.
- 2.—100 acres, three-room house, barn; 117 acres bottom land, balance hill land with timber; about 100 acres cultivated; three wells, cistern at house; about three acres fine orchard. See us for price. It is worth the money.
- 3.—240 acres, 6 miles from Forest City and 2 miles of Napier. This farm is one of the best in the Missouri bottom. It does not overflow and this year some of the best wheat in the bottom was raised on this farm. This farm has fair improvements and can be bought at a very reasonable price on reasonable terms.
- 4.—90 acres, 7 miles of Oregon, 2 miles of Forbes; small house, 8 acres orchard, fenced and cross-fenced; barn, about 15 acres hog tight. $80 per acre. Better investigate now.
- 5.—13 1/2 acres, 2 acres in alfalfa, about 7 acres in pasture. All kinds of fruit for family use. Good house, two rooms downstairs and two upstairs, three closets; good hen house, smoke house, buggy shed, corn crib, hog sheds; about 7 acres hog tight, balance fenced; cistern and running water on place. In Oregon school district, one mile of town. See us. $1000.
- 6.—320 acres, less R. R.; 60 acres hill land, balance bottom land, which is fine for grain and alfalfa. Much of land is tillable. Most of the buildings are on the hill land; 11 story dwelling in 10 rooms, and all other buildings necessary for an up-to-date farm. One-fourth mile of shipping point on Burlington R. R. $800 per acre, if sold soon.
- 7.—200 acres, land, seven miles of Oregon. Excellent improvements and one of the best farms in Northwest Missouri. Priced down where it belongs.
- 8.—84 acres, in the Oregon school district, one mile of Oregon; good new barn, good house, lays fine, running water, well and cistern; new fences and cross-fenced, all is tillable. It will bear investigation at the price we ask.
- 9.—80 acres, about 6 miles east of Oregon, on a good road; small house, two wells, an orchard, barn, and fenced, some creek bottom. Plenty of timber for own use. A bargain at $20 per acre, if taken soon.
- 10.—Sale or Trade—240 acres in Marshall county, Kansas, well improved, at $100 per acre. Part of this is in wheat.
- 11.—37 1/2 acres, six miles east of Oregon, on a good road. All fenced hog-tight and cross-fenced, except one side. All in grass and alfalfa, except about 2 acres. Two acres in orchard—peaches, plums, apricots and berries for family use. Barn holds about 5 tons hay, oats bin and corn crib for about 200 bushels corn. 21x20 room house, cistern and other outbuildings. Barn and shed 32x24, all under shingles. This is a bargain at $65 per acre.
- 12.—27 1/2 acres near Bigelow, about 30 acres of which is in wheat. Investigate this. $90 per acre.
- 13.—Garage 10x20, in good town in Northwest Missouri, including all tools and a 1912 model car. 2-horse-power, practically new. Garage and tools shown, including agency. Tools and contents, $1750.

We have other farms close to Oregon, not listed here. Come and see us.

City Property.

- 1.—One full lot; 3-room house, 1 closet, 1 pantry, two porches, rock wall cellar with cement floor, cistern, smoke house, new wood and coal house, hen house, buggy shed, stable for two horses, grain bin, hay mow; practically level lot on level street; all buildings newly painted; cement walks in front of building. Price, $1,650.
- 2.—Good, practically new five-room house, four below and one above; electric lighted, newly painted; barn, hen house, good arched brick cave, 11 acres hog tight; some fruit. Price, $2,000.
- 3.—Fine house and 11 acres of land in the city of Oregon. Improvements are up-to-date in every way. In the western addition of Oregon. The price is right on this property and it will be sold.

We have other city property not listed here. Call and see us, write us, or call us.

Guardian's Notice.

Notice is hereby given, That Letters of Guardianship on the estate of Mary E. Ketting, a person of unsound mind, were granted to the undersigned on the 11th day of November, 1913, by the Probate Court of Holt County, Missouri.

All persons having claims against said estate are required to exhibit them for allowance to the guardian within one year from the date of the last insertion of the publication of this notice, or they shall be forever barred. JAMES M. DOZIER, Guardian.

Over the River.

R. V. Hodgins, Forbes, Mo.: It is with a heavy heart that I am called upon to inform you that we are all in mourning. Our dear brother, Jeff, is dead. He died night before last, December 17, and was buried December 19. But little can be done to dispel the dark gloom that hovers around our fireside; but the one that broke the family circle can reunite again. He said that he was willing and prepared to go. I think his heart was changed. He looked up with a beautiful smile on his face, as he died.

Your Cousin, FANNIE ARIN.

Earl, Green county, Ky., Dec. 13, 1913.

Jeff Akin, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Noe, and a cousin of R. V. Hodgins, came to Forbes from West Central Kentucky some ten years ago. He continued to make his home with his cousin and aunt, near Forbes, until some thirteen months ago, when he concluded to return to his old Kentucky home—to father and mother; four brothers and two sisters to make them his first visit. His health was gone; he had consumption and wanted to see his people once more and die at home. Jeff had made many friends in and around Forbes, and these he hated to give up, especially those who rendered him such kindly assistance during his two or three severe attacks of hemorrhage of the lungs, during the summer and fall of 1912. We, R. V. Hodgins and family, are very thankful to all those who extended acts of kindness to Jeff, during his sickness here.

Jeff was a jolly, good fellow, and always had a good time, told jokes, was full of life, and made all happy about him. But Jeff is no more. He has surrendered his happy young life, crossed the dark river of death, is silent in his lonely grave, in far-off Kentucky, the land of his birth. Jeff Henry Akin was born May 10, 1885, and died near where he was born in Kentucky, December 17, 1913.
